

What is an Eligibility Certificate?

An EC is a form a program’s administrator must complete for each student in order for said student to be properly certified as eligible on a NACE Eligibility Certificate each term in which the student wishes to compete. Follow the guide below and contact eec@nacesports.org if you have any questions.

Abbreviations

- EC = Eligibility Certificate
- NACE = National Association of Collegiate Esports
- EEC = Eligibility Enforcement Committee

Once you have submitted ITCs for your students, visit nacesports.org/members/eligibility-certificate-form/ to complete the Eligibility Certificate for students with completed ITCs.

You can fill out ECs for as many students with completed ITCs as you wish. Select their names, fill out their credit hour information, and any exemption information.

Military Exception Granted *

A military exemption to completely void or partially void a student's ITC can only occur if:

- A student is no longer enrolled in full-time classes because of military deployment or training elsewhere for that semester after signing a NACE member ITC.
- A student is sent for humanitarian or other commitments at the state or federal level for the duration of a competitive season or academic year after signing a NACE member ITC.
